

Magic Lamp

Plot - People are lost in a desert. They stumble upon a magic lamp. The genie appears and grants each person one wish. Everyone but the last person wishes to go home . . . (or to Disneyland or other great places). The last person runs off the stage once the genie grants the last wish as people are chasing him/her.

There can be a narrator who sets the stage by telling everyone is in a desert etc.

Find something great to use for the lamp.

1. Somehow find the magic lamp.
2. Someone must rub it, and a genie will appear somewhere somehow.
3. Each person wishes to go somewhere else and disappears.
4. The last person looks around and absent-mindedly loudly says, "I sure am lonely here. I wish all my friends were back here with me."
5. All of the others who had their wishes granted instantly appear back on stage groaning, moaning and chasing the last person off the stage.
