

Pebbles Skit Week #1

For this skit you need: 1 teacher and pupils, enough chairs (imaginary or benches) for each pupil, and a teacher's desk.

The teacher is waiting for class to arrive.

Pupil 1 runs in.

- Teacher: What is your name and why are you late?
- Pupil 1: Sorry Ma'am/Sir. My name is Michael and I was throwing pebbles in the lake. (Pupil sits down.)

Pupil 2 runs in.

- Teacher: What is your name and why are you late?
- Pupil 2: My name is Carrie Ma'am/Sir. Sorry I am late, but I was throwing pebbles in the lake. (Pupil sits down.)

More pupils run in one at a time and are asked the same questions. They reply with their name and 'I was throwing pebbles in the lake.'

Finally...the last pupil walks in wet. (For this effect, they can have a spray bottle w/H₂O backstage or splash water on their head.)

- Teacher: What is your name and why are you late?
- Last pupil: (Say this line very slowly, loudly and toward the audience!!)

Sorry Ma'am/Sir. My name is Pebbles!
