

Turkey Hunt Skit

(Camper #1 stands facing audience center stage)

(Camper #2 enters carrying stick pretending it's a toy gun, looking around like s/he is hunting.)

Camper #2: Excuse me, have you seen any turkeys around here? I'm hunting turkey for my Thanksgiving dinner.

(Camper #1 with a slightly scared look, shakes his head 'No'.)

Camper #3 runs across stage from the right and Camper #2 swings up his stick gun and shoots him.

Camper #2: Oh!, just a squirrel! Please, I really need to find a turkey. Do you know where any are?

Camper #1 looks around scared and shakes his head 'No'.

Camper #4 hops across stage from the left and Camper #2 swings up his gun and shoots him.

Camper #2: Rats! just a rabbit. I know there are turkeys around here. You have to know where I can find one.

Camper #1 really shakes his head 'No'.

Repeat for as many animals you need so that all campers have a part - possum, skunk, butterfly, crow, ... with Camper #1 looking more worried and shaking his head harder each time.

Finally, the hunter gives up.

Turkey Hunt Skit

Camper #2: I give up! I guess I'll just go buy a chicken or something this year. (Sadly s/he drags stick gun behind him as he exits stage)

Camper #1: (Flip hands under arms, look happy, and run off stage like a turkey flapping your arms.) Gobble! Gobble! Gobble!
