

Panda Bear in Restaurant Skit

Persons are sitting in chairs as if they are eating a meal at a restaurant. 2 (or more) other chairs are set up at a different 'table' on stage.

Other persons who will eat in the restaurant are offstage. They then enter the restaurant and find a place to sit.

People say: "My, this is a very nice restaurant." "The menu looks great and the place is very nice!" "I've heard the food is very good."

Others say: "Yes, it got great reviews and the prices are sure high." (Look around and see the other people at the other table.) (Other comments as needed)

"But, I wonder why they would let such an animal eat in here?"

Person: Animal? What animal? Oh, that black and white one there? (points at person #1)

(Person #1 quickly stands, pulls a gun slowly and dramatically so everyone knows what is happening - use imagination and a finger), and shoots Person #2. Person #2 falls, and #1 runs offstage.)

Person #3: Did you see that?

Person #4: Yes, that animal just shot him! What kind of an animal would do such a thing?

Person #3: I think it was a panda bear.

Person #4: Let me look that up on my smart phone.

Let's see... Yes! "Panda Bear; (Say this slowly!) Eats . . . Shoots . . . and Leaves."
