

If I Were Not a RADD Staff Skit/Song

RADD staff can do this skit/song for Monday night's campfire and for Thursday night's campfire. Each RADD staff can chose the person s/he'd like to be, and then on Thursday each can choose a new person to be to surprise the rest of the camp.

Try to think ahead of time what clothing and props you could use to help illustrate your chosen character.

The song goes, "If I were not a RADD Staff, I know just what I'd be. If I were not a RADD Staff, a _____ I would be." And each person in turn jumps in and does his or her character all in rhythm.

RADD are lined up across the stage or front of room. As each person takes his/her turn singing their part and filling in the blank they step forward, mime their action, sing their lines and then step back into line so the next volunteer may go. But the song gets longer and longer as volunteer one repeats his part after volunteer two goes. And after volunteer 6 goes, 5,4,3,2 and 1 also go again.
