

Christmas With the RIGHT Family

(A story to read while RADD act it out)

Invite the RADD Staff up onto the stage. Give each RADD a wrapped gift to hold. Ask them to stand in a wide circle with only enough space between them that they can reach the next person's hands to pass the gifts. (If they stand too close the audience can't see each person.)

Explain that you are going to read a story and every time the word Right is said, you pass your gift to the right and every time the word Left is said, you pass it to the left.

"Christmas was almost here and Mother RIGHT was finishing the Christmas baking. Father RIGHT, Sue RIGHT, and Billy RIGHT returned from their last minute Christmas errands.

"There's not much LEFT to be done," said Father RIGHT as he came into the kitchen. "Did you leave the basket of food at the church?" asked Mother RIGHT. "I LEFT it RIGHT where you told me to," said Father RIGHT.

Now, I hope you have the RIGHT present for yourself because that's all that's LEFT of our story ... except to wish you a Magical Holiday ... isn't that RIGHT?
